

CO-CURRICULAR DRAMA INSTRUCTOR IPSWICH GIRLS' GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School offers high quality, non-denominational education to students from Kindy to Year 12 (co-education from Kindy to Year 6, girls only Years 7-12). Established in 1892, the School is one of eight original Grammar Schools in Queensland with a vibrant Arts and Cocurricular Arts program.

At Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School we aim to educate students to become confident, well-educated global citizens and we pride ourselves on providing a personalised, holistic education with a focus on academic excellence and a supportive cocurricular program.

THE OPPORTUNITY

A short 30-minute drive from Brisbane, our vast, heritage-listed campus is conveniently located in the middle of Ipswich. We offer the opportunities of a large city, with the quiet feel of a smaller town.

The Co-curricular Arts program is a vibrant department of the School and has grown significantly to support the artistic endeavours of our student cohort. We are now seeking an enthusiastic and innovative Cocurricular Drama Instructor to join our close knit 'Arts' team where you will provide tuition in the dramatic arts, including Theatresports coaching, individual and group Speech and Drama lessons and other in-school cocurricular Drama programs such as Drama Club.

This is a part-time role under the terms of a Service Agreement where you will invoice the School for Theatresports and will have the right to offer your services as a co-curricular Dram Instructor to students at the School and use the School's facilities and equipment to provide those services and invoice parents accordingly.

WHAT YOU WILL BRING

To be successful in this role, you will have demonstrated skills and experience in teaching dramatic arts programs to students across all year levels, and

- Teaching qualifications in the Performing Arts from a recognised university or college.
- Expertise in teaching various aspects of the dramatic arts such as improvisation, play-making, movement and speech, and other skills required to support annual Theatresports events and school drama clubs, within group and individual learning environments from beginner to advanced levels and across all age groups.
- Expertise in and an ability to incorporate various contemporary skills and techniques for student development.
- Expertise in developing, implementing, and sourcing scripts suitable for students ranging in ability.
- Support and assist the development and implementation of the school's evolving Cocurricular Arts Program.
- Eligibility to work in Australia or have the ability to obtain a Working with Children Blue and/or registration with the Queensland College of Teachers.

Culture fit and attitude are also highly important to us, so a passion for the work you do and the ability to understand and work within our vision, mission and values is paramount to your success in this role.

Confident, well-educated young women

APPLY NOW

If this sounds like you and you are interested in joining a highly respected industry leader, click the APPLY NOW button and provide a copy of your CV, three referees, and a cover letter addressed to the Deputy Principal outlining your experience as it relates to this role. Please address the selection criteria (over no more than two pages), contained within the position description, which can be found on the School's website girlsgrammar.com.au/employment

We thank you for taking the time to send us your application for this role. We assess every application and will contact you directly if you are successful in moving to the next stage. Please note that applications should be sent to us by close of business Tuesday 12 October 2021.