

EARLY EDUCATION TEACHER – Early Education Centre (EEC) IPSWICH JUNIOR GRAMMAR SCHOOL

As Southeast Queensland's only co-educational primary Grammar school, Ipswich Junior Grammar provides a high quality, non-denominational education for boys and girls from Kindergarten to Year 6.

Ipswich Junior Grammar School's Early Education Centre (EEC) is our fun and friendly co-educational community of young learners with an intimate, family atmosphere where children are supported to develop physically, socially, and cognitively. It is a well-resourced, caring, and vibrant environment which promotes curiosity, persistence, self-confidence, and positivity. With a Reggio Emilia approach to teaching, the EEC places the natural development of children as well as the close relationships they share with their environment, at the centre of its philosophy.

THE OPPORTUNITY

The EEC has a fantastic opportunity for an experienced, energetic, and dedicated early years Teacher to join the team in a full-time time basis in 2022.

As a teacher in the EEC, you will promote positive outcomes for children and families, and ensure that the learning environment is guided by the Queensland Kindergarten Learning Guidelines (QKLG) as well as the ethos and values of the Centre.

In this role you will work alongside an energetic team of educators, who are committed to excellence and the provision of an exceptional learning environment for our students. This includes the delivery of teaching and learning programs aligned to the National Quality Framework and the Queensland Kindergarten Learning Guidelines; nurturing a supportive classroom climate which enhances student growth and confidence; and fostering collaborative partnerships with families, carers your colleagues and the wider School community.

If you would like to make a difference to the lives of our young people, we would love to hear from you.

WHAT YOU WILL BRING

To be successful in this role, you will have a willingness to support the values and aims of the School, and

- Bachelor qualifications in Education (Early Years) and current or the ability to gain registration with the Queensland College of Teachers.
- Current knowledge or and demonstrated experience using the National Quality Framework (NQF) and the Queensland Kindergarten Learning Guidelines.
- The ability to promote an environment of dynamic, active, and supportive learning.
- Proven ability to develop confidence and self-esteem in students and to act as a role model in presentation, action, and communication.
- Strong interpersonal skills, with highly developed organisational, communication and administrative skills.
- An understanding of the Reggio Emilia philosophy will be highly regarded.
- Eligibility to work in Australia with relevant teaching qualifications and current registration, or eligibility for registration, with the Queensland College of Teachers.

Culture fit and attitude are also highly important to us, so a passion for the work you do and the ability to understand and work within our vision, mission and values is paramount to your success in this role.

*Nurturing young learners,
future leaders*

APPLY NOW

If this sounds like you and you are interested in joining a highly respected industry leader, click the APPLY NOW button and provide a copy of your CV, three referees, and a cover letter addressed to the Head of Junior School outlining your experience as it relates to this role. Please address the selection criteria (over no more than two pages), contained within the position description, which can be found on the School's website juniorgrammar.com.au/employment.

The successful candidate will benefit from our above award conditions, access to Salary Sacrificing benefits including additional superannuation opportunities, ongoing professional development, and a supportive and engaging work environment.

We thank you for taking the time to send us your application for this role. We assess every application and will contact you directly if you are successful in moving to the next stage. Please note that applications should be sent to us by close of business, 5.00pm, Monday 22 November 2021.