

CHOIR DIRECTOR & SPECIALIST VOCAL INSTRUCTOR IPSWICH GIRLS' GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School offers high quality, non-denominational education to students from Kindy to Year 12 (co-education from Kindy to Year 6, girls only Years 7-12). Established in 1892, the School is one of eight original Grammar Schools in Queensland with a vibrant Arts and Cocurricular Arts program.

At Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School we aim to educate students to become confident, well-educated global citizens and we pride ourselves on providing a personalised, holistic education with a focus on academic excellence and a supportive cocurricular program.

THE OPPORTUNITY

A short 30-minute drive from Brisbane, our vast, heritage-listed campus is conveniently located in the middle of Ipswich. We offer the opportunities of a large city, with the quiet feel of a smaller town.

The Co-curricular Arts program is a vibrant department of the School and has grown significantly to support the artistic endeavours of our student cohort. We are now seeking an enthusiastic and innovative Choir Director and Specialist Vocal Instructor to join our close knit 'Arts' team.

In this DUAL role you, as Choir Director you will provide direct beginner, intermediate and/or advanced choirs at both the Senior and Junior School (part of the Co-curricular Ensembles Program). When working in the Specialist Vocal Instructor role, provide individual and/or group private vocal tuition to students within the Junior and Senior School as required and support the School musical performances internally and externally.

This is a part-time role where you will be paid by the School directly for your Choir Director work and will be under the terms of a Service Agreement for your Specialist Vocal Instructor work where you will invoice the School for your time. The hourly rate for all work is $76 per hour in line with the QMTA rates.

WHAT YOU WILL BRING

To be successful in this role, you will have demonstrated skills and experience in teaching dance programs to students across all year levels, and

- Teaching qualifications in Voice from a recognised university or college.
- Demonstrated skills and experience in teaching choirs and vocal music to students in private and/or group situations, across all age levels.
- Capacity to integrate technology into effective Co-curricular teaching practice.
- Ability to plan and deliver engaging private vocal lessons that maximise learning outcomes for students with diverse learning needs, musical interests, and varying levels of musical ability.
- Demonstrate highly effective communication skills in both speaking and writing, and highly developed interpersonal, and human-relations skills in the context of relating to staff, students, and parents/guardians.
- Support and assist the development and implementation of the school's evolving Cocurricular Arts Program.
- Eligibility to work in Australia or have the ability to obtain a Working with Children Blue and/or registration with the Queensland College of Teachers.

Culture fit and attitude are also highly important to us, so a passion for the work you do and the ability to understand and work within our vision, mission and values is paramount to your success in this role.

Confident, well-educated young women
