

HEAD TENNIS COACH IPSWICH GIRLS' GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School offers high quality, non-denominational education to students from Kindy to Year 12 (co-education from Kindy to Year 6, girls only Years 7-12). Established in 1892, the School is one of eight original Grammar Schools in Queensland. At Ipswich Girls' & Junior Grammar School we aim to educate students to become confident, well-educated global citizens and we pride ourselves on providing a personalised, holistic education with a focus on academic excellence.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Ipswich Girls' Grammar School is one of ten high performing schools included in Queensland's premier schoolgirls' sporting competition, the QGSSSA. Sporting excellence is a key focus of the School's growth strategy, and we are now looking for a Head Tennis Coach to guide and manage the School's tennis program.

As the Head Tennis Coach, you will provide to the School a professional, robust, high-level tennis program and first-class tennis program and provide all coaching, fixture, and tournament needs (including equipment), for players from beginner to elite.

Additionally, you will provide expert training for athletes, assisting individual skills development to ensure peak performance and fitness are achieved during crucial times, i.e., competitions, tournaments, matches, trials, and qualifying events.

This role will suit an individual with proven experience in a Senior Tennis Coaching role working with children and young adults.

WHAT YOU WILL BRING

To be successful in this role, you will bring a passion for tennis and sport in general to the School, and

- Be the holder of a current Tennis Australia Development Tennis Coach certification, or higher with demonstrated experience (Ideally 2+ years) coaching children and young adults at various level of capability
- Demonstrated experience supporting a club or school tennis competitions internal and at a community competition level
- Ability to adhere to the Queensland Health Directions for School to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 by 23 January 2022
- Be punctual and prepared for training sessions and matches, always providing professional supervision of players.
- Provide reports on player performance and team organization at the end of season to the Sport Coordinator.
- Offer individual, constructive, and positive feedback regularly to players to help them improve performances
- Be a positive, optimistic, and enthusiastic leader with excellent interpersonal skills.
- Liaise with players and the Coordinator in response to:
 - Training sessions
 - Selection
 - Conduct of players and/or teams

Culture fit and attitude are also highly important to us, so a passion for the work you do and the ability to understand and work within our vision, mission and values is paramount to your success in this role.

Confident, well-educated young women
