

SPORT COACHES – SECONDARY SCHOOL IPSWICH GIRLS' GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School offers high quality, non-denominational education to students from Kindy to Year 12 (co-education from Kindy to Year 6, girls only Years 7-12). Established in 1892, the School is one of eight original Grammar Schools in Queensland. At Ipswich Girls' & Junior Grammar School we aim to educate students to become confident, well-educated global citizens and we pride ourselves on providing a personalised, holistic education with a focus on academic excellence.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Ipswich Girls' Grammar School is one of ten high performing schools included in Queensland's premier schoolgirls' sporting competition, the QGSSSA. Sporting excellence is a key focus of the School's growth strategy, and we are currently seeking Cocurricular Sport Coaches across a range of disciplines to commence with the 2022 School year, including:

- Netball - 5 positions
- Football (Soccer) - 3 positions
- Touch Football - 2 positions
- Strength and Conditioning Coach

We are also seeking a Netball Lead Technical Coach for four hours per week.

As a sports coach your primary role will be to provide expert training for athletes. You'll be assisting their skills development and ensuring peak performance and fitness are achieved during crucial times, i.e., competitions, tournaments, matches, trials, and qualifying events.

The Cocurricular Sport Coach is paid on a casual basis (minimum two-hour shifts). Coaching commitment are usually a minimum of four hours per week which comprises at least one training session and one game play per week. Pay rates vary according to qualifications and range between $18 - $40 per hour depending on age and experience.

These positions will ideally suit experienced coaches who possess relevant and current coaching qualifications, and a current Paid Queensland Working with Children check (Blue Card).

WHAT YOU WILL BRING

To be successful in this role, you will be a person who is professionally competent and brings a passion for sport to the School, and

- Assist the Director of Sport by acting as Coach and strategically planning the training programme that develops individual and/or team skills and the schedule of the sport.
- Be punctual and prepared for training sessions and matches, always providing professional supervision of players.
- Have a passion for your sport, working with young people and the involvement of students in sport.
- Provide reports on player performance and team organization at the end of season to the relevant sport Coordinator.
- Offer individual, constructive, and positive feedback regularly to players to help them improve performances
- Be a positive, optimistic, and enthusiastic leader with excellent interpersonal skills.
- Liaise with players and the Coordinator in response to:

Confident, well-educated young women

- Training sessions
- Selection
- Conduct of players and/or teams

Culture fit and attitude are also highly important to us, so a passion for the work you do and the ability to understand and work within our vision, mission and values is paramount to your success in this role.
